

Shore Excursions

While cruises are becoming more popular these days, the more discerning traveler prefers to enjoy private shore excursions opposed to the many, many group excursions as offered by the respective cruise line. Donna Franca Tours continues to offer the very best in custom designed shore excursions for all ports of call in Italy and is pleased to share a few of the most popular ones with you. For more information and to create your very own private shore excursion based on your intended port of call and your personal interests, please contact one of our travel specialists.

For clients starting their cruise from Rome, Donna Franca Tours can arrange for a package including one night at a selected hotel in Civitavecchia, dinner and breakfast, a private car transfer from the Rome FCO Airport to the hotel, and a shuttle transfer the next morning to your cruise ship.
